Re: Proposal on the parliamentary oversight on CFSP / CSDP / Comments

Dear Colleagues,

Thank you for your letter of February 25th and for the useful information related to our upcoming Conference of EU Speakers, which will gather us in Brussels, from 3 to 5 of April.

As regards the proposal on the parliamentary oversight on CFSP / CSDP I would like to inform you that the matter is currently under discussion amongst the Foreign Affairs, National Defense and European Affairs Parliamentary Committees. The three Committees are drafting a joint proposal of resolution to be adopted at plenary level, most likely before the EU Speakers Conference. Once the resolution is approved, I will promptly share it with you.

However, having in mind your request of remarks on the proposal circulated amongst the Speakers and the deadline for doing so, I would like to extend my support to substance items 1, 4, 7, 8 and 10 and offer you, at this stage, the following general comments on the remaining topics (please note I stick to the numeracy of your proposal, disregarding number 2 is absent):

- Nr.3 - The total figure of delegates from the European parliament shall not exceed its actual proportion of representation at the COSAC meetings.
- Nr. 5 – Meeting of the Conference on CFSP / CSDP are organized twice a year in the country holding the rotating Council Presidency.
- Nr. 6 – The current model of presidency of COSAC meetings, shall be adopted for the CFSP / CSDP Conferences.
- Nr. 9 – The secretariat of the Conference shall be provided by the existing Secretariat of COSAC, which might be reinforced, if required.

Looking forward to see you at the EU Speakers Conference.

Truly yours,

THE PRESIDENT OF THE ASSEMBLY OF THE REPUBLIC
